PRESENTATIONS

Workshop - Discussion on the Proposed Amendments to the Home Rule Charter

City Attorney Charles Zech presented the proposed amendments to the Home Rule Charter.

Attorney Zech stated that the amendments would be presented to City Council at an upcoming City Council meeting. The City Council has the authority to accept all the recommended amendments, accept some of the recommended amendments, or accept none of the recommended amendments. If they choose to do so, the City Council could even add amendments.

Attorney Zech informed members of City Council and guests that he would today he would be presented each of the proposed Charter amendments, known as a "Measure", as recommended by the 2019 Charter Review Committee adding that each of these Measures would be represented on the ballot, if accepted by City Council, as a "Proposition".

Attorney Zech began the presentation of Measures which was followed by discussion.

Citizens who spoke during discussion were:

Olen Yarnell, Richard Blackmore, David Jordan, Rita Burnside, and Leslie Bacon.

Mayor Chris Riley thanked the 2019 Charter Review Committee for all of their hard work.
